

WL-S MOCK TRIAL NEWS

The 2010 WL-S Mock Trial team will attempt to return to the State Mock Trial Championships on Friday, February 5 at the Union County Courthouse in Marysville. The team consisting of John Hance, Ashley Sarver, Sadie Shafer, Shelby Shafer, Matthew McKelvey, Taran Clapp, Becca Hunt, Sarah Hunt and Janalee Glunt will be representing WL-S. WL-S is in the same bracket as Marysville, North Union, and Benjamin Logan. This year's case is a First Amendment freedom of speech case in which a student is suing the school district for violating freedom to maintain a personal blog that can be accessed from the school's network. The team which will compete in two trials as both plaintiff and defendant must win both trials in order to advance to the regional tournament on February 26. All who wish to see the team compete can go to the Union County

Courthouse in Marysville before 9:00 am to locate our courtroom for the morning trial. The team will also compete again at 1:00 pm. Come support our team and GO TIGERS!!

